

Learning-Aligned Employment Program

Description

If you're interested in being paid for doing research on campus, apply now to the new Learning-Aligned Employment Program (LAEP) by Nov. 10: LAEP Application and Info.

Participants in this program will be hired as Research Assistants and will be paid hourly wages to conduct research with UC San Diego faculty. LAEP offers students paid research positions that may relate to their major, career goals, or the exploration of career options. LAEP is funded by the California Student Aid Commission (CSAC) to support students with financial need.

If you have questions, contact LAEP coordinator Veronica Bejar at vbejar@ucsd.edu.
